

Jr PRINT PRODUCER at TAXI

Some people want to win the lottery so they don't have to work anymore.

Others win it every day just because they love the work they do.

Print production at TAXI is about bringing ideas and visions to life with impeccable execution.

In this role, one to two years of production experience in an agency or similar setting will serve you well.

As will your knowledge of prepress and print production processes, and managing projects from concept to completion.

The fact that you're the right mix of sweetheart and hard-ass doesn't hurt.

We're TAXI. Get in!

RESPONSIBILITIES

You'll make the most of every day as you:

- Manage production of assigned accounts
- Schedule, quote, estimate, budget, and source
- Monitor and ensure timelines and budget goals are met
- Keep abreast of industry trends and new technology
- Help resource new vendors
- Help with studio resourcing
- Do a whole lot more
